

Yale Daily News Guide to Fellowships and Grants
More Than $1 Billion In Free Money For Graduate School

New York - More than one billion dollars in free money is available for aspiring graduate school students, as detailed in the Yale Daily News: Guide to Fellowships and Grants Guide to Fellowships and Grants Guide to Fellowships and Grants (Kaplan/Simon & Schuster, ISBN 0-684-86281-6, $25). Created for students by students who staff the prestigious Yale Daily News, and using data compiled by the Reference Service Press, the leading authority on fellowships and grants, this is the premier guide to accessing money for graduate school. The guide includes the latest, most accurate information about the biggest and best-funded programs, and advice and tips from students who have successfully searched for fellowships and grants. Every fellowship and grant listed in this book is worth $1,000 or more, does not have to be repaid, and can be used at different schools.

In addition to providing comprehensive, alphabetical listings of fellowships and grants, the guide helps students better understand the entire process of obtaining funds, giving practical advice on how to choose, how to apply and how to make the most of the money awarded. A wide range of financial options are available for students applying to graduate school ñ fellowships and grants exist for study, research, and various other academic projects. The funds are awarded based on a myriad of qualifications, from past achievement to future goals, rather than on financial need.

Yale Daily News: Guide to Fellowships and Grants

Kaplan/Simon & Schuster

0-684-86281-6, $25

October 1999

Yale Daily News: Guide to Fellowships and Grants is available wherever books are sold. Kaplan and Simon & Schuster jointly publish a full line of titles on subjects including test preparation, admissions, academic enrichment, career and life skills.

Reference Service Press (RSP) is a publishing company specializing in the development of electronic and print directories of financial aid for special-needs groups. They specialize in the development of financial aid resources in multiple formats including books, disks, CD-ROMs, reports and online sources.

The Yale Daily News is the nation's oldest college daily newspaper and serves the community of Yale University in New Haven, Connecticut. The Daily News is the primary division of the Yale Daily News Publishing Company, which is headed by the News' editor in chief and its publisher. In addition to the daily newspaper, the YDN publishes the Kaplan/Simon & Schuster titles Yale Daily News Guide to Succeeding in College, the Yale Daily News Guide to Internships 2000 Guide to Internships 2000 Guide to Internships 2000 and Yale Daily News Working Knowledge.

Press Contact: pubrel@kaplan.com, (212) 492-5965