

KAPLAN UNIVERSITY OFFERS 15% DISCOUNT TO ALL ACTIVE MILITARY

Fort Lauderdale, FL – May 16, 2005 – Kaplan University is pleased to announce a 15% discount on all online degree programs currently offered to U.S. troops on active military status. Active members of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines and Coast Guard branches, as well as active Reserves and National Guard, are now eligible for the reduction when enrolling for classes with the university's special team of military admissions advisors.

"We are very proud of the men and women who are defending freedom and democracy on our behalf," said Andrew Rosen, President, Kaplan University. "Many of these individuals had to put a pause on their pursuit of higher education; we want to make the option of distance learning more feasible to them."

Kaplan University, based in Davenport, Iowa, is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools (NCA). The university offers master, bachelor and associate degrees, as well as certificates designed to provide students with the skills necessary to qualify them for employment in fields such as business, criminal justice, education, design, healthcare, information technology, and paralegal studies. With over 22,000 on-ground and online students, Kaplan University joins the ranks of the largest universities in the U.S.
